

NZAMI member benefit liability scheme

As the specialist in liability risks, Aon New Zealand has tailored an insurance package to meet the risks faced by licensed New Zealand immigration advisers.

We are pleased to work with NZAMI to deliver this cost effective insurance package to its members.

Summary of the package

Professional Indemnity

The policy is designed to cover legal liability arising from any Claim for compensation arising out of the Professional Business i.e. Licensed immigration advisory services including settlement services, recruitment and education.

The policy will pay all reasonable Costs and Expenses incurred in the investigation and defence of a complaint made against the insured adviser with the Immigration Advisers Authority.

In addition, the policy shall pay a fine, monetary penalty or compensation that the insured adviser is required to pay under an order or direction of the Immigration Advisers Complaints and Disciplinary Tribunal.

Statutory Liability

This cover pays for the legal defence if you are prosecuted for an unintentional breach of almost any New Zealand Acts of Parliament. If convicted, it will also pay your fines, except in respect of the Health & Safety and Employment Act, where indemnification is prohibited by law. However, cover for defence costs are included.

Public Liability

This policy covers your legal liability to pay damages to third parties who have suffered property damage or personal injury as a result of your activities.

Internet Liability

This covers any act, error or omission committed in advertising, web-casting, electronic publishing, transmission, replication, dissemination, distribution, serialisation, creation, production, origination, exhibition or displaying of material over the Internet.

All coverages described are subject to the terms and conditions of the Insurance Policy wordings. For full policy details and more scheme information please contact Aon.

We have partnered with NZI Liability to deliver this cost effective insurance solution. NZI Liability is a division of IAG New Zealand Limited who received a Standard & Poor's (Australia) Pty Ltd financial strength rating of AA-.
